

Volunteer Opportunities for Youth

There are valuable opportunities for young people interested in volunteering within their communities. The following organizations provide volunteer opportunities for youths between the ages of 12 - 19 in the Vancouver and other connected cities/communities.

The Vancouver Youth.ca

Created and maintained by youth and staff of the City of Vancouver's Social Policy Division, this portal offers a wealth of information for youth in Vancouver, including a fabulous listing of current youth oriented volunteer opportunities.

Make this your first stop: www.vancouveryouth.ca/category/position-type/volunteer-0

North Shore Youth Volunteer Directory

The North Shore Youth Volunteer Directory is published annually by North Shore Community Resources. It provides a very comprehensive listing of organizations offering volunteer opportunities for youth on the North Shore.

Broadway Youth Resource Centre

Broadway Youth Resource Centre (BYRC) offers a comprehensive program for youth at risk, including social, health, education, employment and life skills services.

Volunteers contribute in a number of ways in the community and within the centre. These include:

- Community outreach
- Special Events
- Community Garden
- Carwash Fundraisers
