I Belong

Supporting LGBTQ Newcomers in BC

Empowering newcomers to fully participate in Canadian society for over 40 years

LGBTQ community resources

I Belong aims to support LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, Queer/Questioning) immigrant newcomers by facilitating discussion around sexuality, gender, race, culture, and class.

Often faced with being a 'minority within a minority', the I Belong program aims to support the unique needs of LGBTQ immigrants. LGBTQ immigrants face barriers ranging from racism, homophobia, transphobia and isolation, to logistical issues such as finding resources and support services, safe housing and employment.

The I Belong program aims to bridge this gap in understanding the unique needs of LGBTQ newcomers and provide support by raising awareness and offering support groups.

> " I am very grateful that I am here, feel safe, feel accepted. "
> " I Belong's One to One counselling really helped me to go through what I went through. "
> " It is accepting and inclusive. "

I Belong peer support

Meet new people, make friends and participate in activities facilitated by LGBTQ volunteers. Our peer support group gives you a chance to learn about community resources, share experiences and information and build social connections. Our peer support group is open to LGBTQ newcomers, regardless of immigration status. Please contact us for details.

I Belong individual / group counselling support

Meet new people, make friends and participate in activities facilitated by LGBTQ volunteers. Our peer support group gives you a chance to learn about community resources, share experiences and information and build social connections. Our peer support group is open to LGBTQ newcomers, regardless of immigration status. Please contact us for details.

One-on-one social mentorship

LGBTQ immigrants can also participate in our Culture Connections Social Mentorship Program, to be paired up with a LGBTQ Social Mentor who is integrated in the Vancouver community.

Available languages

Group and one-on-one services are delivered in English. Additional language support is available upon request.
