Community Outreach and Advocacy Program

Empowering newcomers to fully participate in Canadian society for over 40 years

Advocacy, Education and Community Participation

Through a variety of projects and initiatives, MOSAIC's Community Outreach and Advocacy Program promotes integration, leadership, and participation within immigrant and refugee communities. Community Outreach staff work to create links between immigrant communities and society at large. They also regularly participate in conferences and events to raise awareness of the challenges that immigrants and refugees face.

MOSAIC Multicultural Women's Support Group

The MOSAIC Multicultural Women's Support Group provides a space for immigrant and refugee women to build connections to the community and to learn about life in Canada. Our group of immigrant women meet regularly to talk, cook, learn about new programs and resources, and participate in many different activities at MOSAIC sites and in the community.

The Women's Support Group is a safe, welcoming environment where you can:

- Make friends
- Share experiences
- Gain self-confidence
- Improve English skills (led by a MOSAIC volunteer)
- Learn more about Canadian culture and the Vancouver community
- Discuss common concerns
- Gain access to resources (community, basic legal information)
- Find group volunteer opportunities
- Participate in group field trips

How to participate

The Women's Support Group meets once a week on Tuesdays, 9:00am to 12:00pm, at the MOSAIC Vancouver Community Room.

To join, come to any Tuesday morning meeting, or contact 604.254.9626.
