

Shagun Bhanot, PhD, CPHR Candidate

Engagement Manager, Vantage Point

Shagun brings her warm energy, positive spirit, and passion for volunteerism to her role of Engagement Manager at Vantage Point. Through her experience in people engagement, she recruits, trains, and manages our team of skilled volunteer facilitators (knowledge philanthropists). Before coming to Vantage Point, Shagun worked in varied capacities in academic and Not for profit Sector including administration, management of specialized projects, facilitation, Career services, recruitment, and people engagement. She completed her PhD in Language and Literature at one of the top universities in India, Himachal Pradesh University, in 2009. As a self-proclaimed continuous learner, Shagun pursued certificate in HR management from BCIT, successfully passed the CPHR National Knowledge exam and attended a range of conferences and courses in the areas of coaching, Team Dynamics, project management, intercultural competencies, and more. Shagun served as a board member for the Immigrant Advisory Council and volunteered as a Coordinator for Neighbourhood Small Grants with Vancouver Foundation.